NOT VOTING—3

Meehan	Schiff	Yates
--------	--------	-------

□ 1800

The Clerk announced the following pair:

On this vote:

Mr. Schiff for, with Mr. Yates against.

Mr. SHERMAN changed his vote from "no" to "aye."

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2016, MILITARY CONSTRUCTION APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 1998

Mrs. MYRICK, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 105-156) on the resolution (H. Res. 178) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2016) making appropriations for military construction, family housing, and base realignment and closure for the Department of Defense for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1998, and for other purposes, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

PERMISSION FOR COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS TO HAVE UNTIL MIDNIGHT TUESDAY, JULY 1, 1997, TO FILE REPORT ON BILL MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR AND RELATED AGENCIES, FISCAL YEAR 1998

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Appropriations may have until midnight Tuesday, July 1, 1997, to file a privileged report on a bill making appropriations for the Department of the Interior and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1998, and for other purposes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. All points of order are reserved on the bill.

SUNDRY MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Sundry messages in writing from the President of the United States were communicated to the House by Mr. Sherman Williams, one of his secretaries.

EXPRESSING THE SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO ELECTIONS IN ALBANIA SCHEDULED FOR JUNE 29, 1997

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on International Relations be discharged from further consideration of the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 105) expressing the sense of the Congress relating to the elections in Albania scheduled for June 29, 1997, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the concurrent resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. TRAFICANT. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, I do not plan to object, but I would like to yield now to the distinguishing chairman for an explanation.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. TRAFICANT. I yield to the gentleman from New York.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

At this time, Mr. Speaker, as Albanian democracy is at a crossroads, our thoughts and prayers are with the people of Albania struggling to safeguard the progress they have made toward democracy and a market-based economy.

The Albanian people have suffered enormous hardships throughout this century. We have always been hopeful that, having expelled their former Communist overlords, the way would be open for Albania's citizens to enjoy the true benefits of economic and political progress.

The events that unfolded late last year with the insolvency and the collapse of several major investment houses came as a deep disappointment. The violence that erupted earlier this year was a true shock to most Members of the Congress, including myself. Those forces or individuals who seek to reap profit or political gain from the unrest are to be condemned, and they should have no place in Albania's future.
